About

This is the website with information about the topic of Digital Sovereignty in the European Union. The site is primarily set up as the result of a Jean Monnet module, entitled "DESTINY", which focuses on stimulating discussions around teaching digitalisation, and specifically Digital Sovereignty-related issues, to Master students who are studying for a degree in European Governance at the Brussels School of Governance.

The project is coordinated by the Brussels School of Governance, Vrije Universiteit Brussel.